READY FOR GRAND JURY

District Attorney to Summon Relatives and Maids From New

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., June 3.-The eighteenth day of the Ward shooting mystery brought three sharp de-

The first was the discovery in Phila delphia of a wounded man giving the name of John Cieuzo of New York, suspected of being the companion of Clarence Peters, alleged to have been shot by Walter S. Ward at the time the wealthy baker's son claims to have killed the ex-soldier in self-defense. Unsuccessful search for a wounded man was conducted yesterday in Stam-ford, Conn.

man was conducted yesterday in Stamford. Conn.

The second development was the discovery that a man known as "Jack" had been seen as late as Thursday night at the Mills Hotel in New York where Cieuzo claims to have stayed. He was said to have driven up in a red automobile of the same make of the car alleged by Ward to have been used by the mysterious "Charley Ross" and "Jack." when he asserts they met him and Peters at a blackmailers' tryst near the Kensico reservoir on the night of May 15. the Ward Baking Company also was said to have been found on the prisoner, who declined to say for what purpose he was carrying it.

Clenzo was arrested yesterday when found prowling about a house. Following his hearing today a turnkey discovered he was suffering from bullet wounds in his chest and right arm. He was removed to a hospital, under guard, after further examination.

Clenzo, apart from giving his name, residence and occupation, which he said was that of special detective, and how he obtained his wounds, declined to answer questions.

A dispatch from Wakafield, Mass., where Clenzo said he came from originally, stated it was believed the suspect was John Cleurzo, who has been absent from his home there for several months. When last heard of at Wakefield two months ago, Cleurzo said he was going to Philadelphia from New Tork. The dispatch said also that he had been engaged in detective work after the war.
